GOVERNMENT'S FIRST RESPONSE TO THE STANDING DISCOVERY ORDER

The United States hereby files this response to the Standing Discovery Order. This response also complies with Local Rule 88.10 and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16.

- A.
1. Attached, please find a copy of any written statements made by the defendant.
 2. Attached is the portion of the written record containing the substance of any oral statement made by the defendant before or after arrest in response to interrogation by any person then known to the defendant to be a government agent.
 3. The defendants did not testify before the Grand Jury.
 4. The defendant's prior criminal record is attached.
 5. Books, papers, documents, data, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, within the government's possession, custody or control, which are material to the preparation of the defendant's defense, or which the government intends to use as evidence at trial to prove its case in chief, or which were obtained from or belong to the defendant, may be inspected at a mutually convenient time at: the Office of the United States Attorney, 99 Northeast 4th Street, Miami, Florida. Please call the undersigned to set up a date and time that is convenient to both parties. Please call the undersigned with 48 hours notice if you intend to review the evidence at this date and time.

The attachments to this discovery response are not necessarily copies of all the books, papers, documents, data, etc., that the government may intend to introduce at trial.

6. There were no physical or mental examinations or scientific tests or experiments made in connection with this case.
- B. DEMAND FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY: Pursuant to the Standing Discovery Order, the United States requests the disclosure and production of materials listed in Section (b) of Local Rule 88.10. This request is also made pursuant to Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
- C. The government will disclose any information or material which may be favorable on the issues of guilt or punishment within the scope of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).
- D. The government will disclose any payments, promises of immunity, leniency, preferential treatment, or other inducements made to prospective government witnesses, within the scope of Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), or Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959).
- E. The government will disclose any prior convictions of any alleged co-conspirator, accomplice or informant who will testify for the government at trial.
- F. The defendant was not identified in a lineup, show up, photo array or similar identification proceedings.
- G. The government has advised its agents and officers involved in this case to preserve all rough notes.
- H. The government will timely advise the defendants of its intent, if any, to introduce at trial extrinsic act evidence pursuant to F.R.E. 404(b). Pursuant to Local Rule 88.10, the notice will be provided regardless of whether the evidence may be used in the case-in-chief, for impeachment or possible rebuttal, and will include the general nature of the evidence.

You are hereby on notice that all evidence made available to you for inspection, as well as all statements disclosed herein or in any future discovery letter, may be offered in the trial of this cause, under F.R.E. 404(b) or otherwise (including the inextricably-intertwined doctrine).

In addition, the government may introduce under Rule 404(b) evidence underlying the defendants' past criminal activity that has resulted in arrests and/or convictions and which is summarized in the attached NCIC of each defendant and will be provided in the form of certified convictions upon receipt by the Government.

- I. The defendant is not an aggrieved persons, as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2510(11), of any relevant electronic surveillance that was authorized pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2516 and 18 U.S.C §2518 and that has been unsealed in accordance with 18 U.S.C §2518.
